

Kathleen Carlini/Sygnia

Elizabeth Hanford Dole, 63, former president of the American Red Cross, former U.S. Secretary of Labor and Secretary of Transportation. A Presidential candidate herself until she dropped out of the race in October.

AP/Wide World

Jennifer Dunn, 58, U.S. Representative from Washington since 1993 and the first woman to run for House Majority Leader (1998).

AP/Wide World

Dianne Feinstein, 66, U.S. Senator from California. Has 30 years of political experience, including 10 years as mayor of San Francisco.

AP/Wide World

Jane Dee Hull, 64, governor of Arizona. Former Arizona secretary of state, with 15 years in the state's House of Representatives, where she was elected Speaker of the House.

AP/Wide World

Kay Bailey Hutchison, 56, U.S. Senator from Texas and deputy majority whip in Senate. Served in the Texas House of Representatives and as state treasurer.

AP/Wide World

Claudia Kennedy, 52, a three-star general in the U.S. Army. Serves as the Army's deputy chief of staff for intelligence.

AP/Wide World

Mary Landrieu, 44, U.S. Senator from Louisiana. Former Louisiana legislator and state treasurer.

Sucho/Corbis Sygma

Patsy Mink, 72, U.S. Representative from Hawaii from 1965 to 1976 and again since a special election in 1990. Former assistant secretary of state.

AP/Wide World

Gloria Molina, 51, chair of Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors. First Latina elected to the California State Legislature, L.A. City Council and L.A. County Board of Supervisors.

Linda Cicerni

Condoleezza Rice, 45, senior fellow at Stanford University's Hoover Institution. Former special assistant to the President for national security affairs and senior director for Soviet affairs in the National Security Council.

Jeanne Shaheen, 53, governor of New Hampshire. Served three terms in the New Hampshire State Senate.

Olympia Snowe, 52, U.S. Senator from Maine since 1995. Member of the U.S. House of Representatives from 1979 to 1994.

Kathleen Kennedy Townsend, 48, lieutenant governor of Maryland. Former U.S. deputy assistant attorney general and Maryland assistant attorney general.

Maxine Waters, U.S. Representative since 1991. Served in California State Assembly.

Christine Todd Whitman, 53, New Jersey governor and president of the National Association of Public Utilities. Served on local board of fire commissioners.

Name: _____

Address: _____

E-mail (optional): _____

Phone number (optional): _____

Male or female: _____

The results will be announced in PARADE on April 30.

NURSE YOUR NOSE

When your nose is sore and red from a cold, do you simply settle for the leading brand of regular tissue? Or do you want a softer, more soothing tissue? Get Puffs Plus with lotion containing aloe and vitamin E. Because when you're hurting, a little extra tender care can make a big difference.

© 2000 P&G